

Constrain your Piston

You will be completing your intake mechanism by constraining the piston you made in assignment #6 to your intake you made in assignment #5.

Remember to make all piston constraints in the intake assembly (otherwise they wouldn't be able to move).

You will also have to make 4 polycarbonate brackets to constrain your 2 pistons.

Measurements for the brackets and locations of the pistons are given on the following page.

